Statement of a released detainee

Ref. S-2013/041 · Taken 28 September 2013 · Published 4 October 2013 · Language of interview: Arabic

The witness, Salim Haddad, says he was held at Branch 999 throughout July 2013, in dormitory 4. He describes a room of about forty men and a daily count at dawn.

He names Yousef Khaled Al-Ali, Bassel Nader and Fadi Karam as cellmates who were with him for most of that month. He did not see any of them after his release.

He was released on 2 August 2013 without charge and returned to his family the same evening.

The interview was recorded with consent. Identifying details of the witness's family have been withheld.

This document is synthetic. All names are fictional and were written for the Sealbook demo case.
